In today's constantly evolving markets, keeping abreast of changes is a daily challenge. Therefore you need a bank that has the know-how and dedication to support your overall strategy, as well as the skills to meet your specialised and complex financial needs in the clearest and most efficient way possible. At Fortis Bank, we combine in-depth market knowledge with the strength of our innovative services to provide the best possible solutions for corporate and institutional clients in one integrated Merchant Banking organisation.

Whether you are a large company, an institutional investor, a hedge fund or a banking institution, Merchant Banking simplifies your access to our services by assigning you with a personal relationship manager. Your single contact person has expert knowledge of our services plus a thorough understanding of the challenges you face, therefore you benefit from personalised solutions that fit your needs and requirements precisely.

Ensuring investments that add value to your organisation's activities, your relationship manager will guide your choices by assessing risks and taking into account your financial needs. Through our extensive network of specialists and with a client-oriented approach, we develop flexible solutions to meet your financial aspirations.

A man and a woman in business attire are standing on a waterfront promenade, looking at a city skyline across the water. The woman is on the left, wearing a dark leather jacket, and the man is on the right, wearing a dark suit jacket. They are both looking towards the right, where a large body of water stretches out. In the background, a dense city skyline is visible, featuring several prominent skyscrapers under a cloudy sky. The overall scene suggests a professional meeting or a business discussion in a high-profile urban setting.

Anchored in the Benelux market, Fortis Bank is expanding its Merchant Banking activities worldwide. In Europe we maintain well established client relationships by offering an entire range of integrated services. In the US and Asia we now focus on selected core activities.
